

America loves the movies. The U.S. movie industry is worth $95.45 billion as of 2022. Surprisingly, the movie industry continued to grow slowly throughout the pandemic. The industry is expected to have a CAGR of 4.1% from 2018 to 2025. We not only love the movies, we love talking about them and we love everything about Hollywood.

Screenz TV Television seeks to quench that thirst by bringing today's movies, its protagonist and behind the scenes features. Every episode brings you closer to the movie industry and all its characters. In-depth interviews with "A" movie actors will tell you the story behind the movie. Directors and producers will show you how it was made. We also bring you extensive coverage of the Oscars, Emmy's and one of the most favorite features, the red carpet arrivals and premieres from today's hottest movies.

Get your popcorn, soda, and favorite seat ready for you are going "Screenz TV" with every major movie in each one of our programs.

Screenz TV is produced by Camacho Productions and distributed by Ortiz Media Group.
